

Living for Eternity - shaping our choices in the now

*In the definition, I call a Christian's happiness the end of his course, thereby meaning, as Paul, (2 Tim 4:7) the whole scope of his life ... I make happiness to consist in this end obtained; for it is not the mere promise of it that immediately makes perfectly happy, nor Christ's mere purchase, nor our mere seeking, but the apprehending and obtaining, which sets the crown on the saints head
O that did all heartily and strongly believe that we shall never be truly happy till then!
Then we should not so dote upon seeming happiness here.
(Richard Baxter, The Saint's Everlasting Rest, 31)*

Called to faith

Christian sacrifice

Seeing the Giver with eyes wide open

3 Steps to heaven

Speaking the glorious truth in love

Getting down to business