

Ministry Training Mornings OPEN TO ALL

NEXT MEETING: 6 November 2019

10am to 1pm, followed by lunch.

See over the page for details.

Angus MacLeay will be leading our morning. He is married to Sue and they have two children and a grandson. Before ordination Angus worked as a solicitor. He has served in Manchester, Carlisle and, since 2001, Sevenoaks. Since 1995 he has also served on General Synod. Angus has written a number of short commentaries for preachers, for the Proclamation Trust, including Teaching 1 Peter.

1 PETER - a pathway for marginalized Christians

Christians are increasingly feeling marginalised and ostracised in the West and there is a recognition that things are only likely to get worse.

1 Peter was written specifically for this setting. It doesn't describe the sort of full blown persecution found in the Book of Revelation but nonetheless it gives encouragement and guidance to believers who are under pressure from the surrounding culture. In that setting what are the truths which should particularly encourage us? What should our priorities be? How should we respond?

1 Peter provides us with a pathway tailor made for our day.
