

VACANCY

FULL TIME SENIOR STAFF WORKER

ALL SOULS
EASTBOURNE

LOVING THE LORD JESUS AND MAKING HIM KNOWN

A growing evangelical church in the town centre, All Souls Eastbourne is seeking a senior staff worker to disciple, equip and train our church family for ministry and mission. As well as joining the Sunday preaching team, the worker will head up some significant areas of church life, involving responsibility for the Bible teaching, training, pastoring and organisation of core teams.

The worker will take on care of our children's and young people's leaders, along with at least two other areas:

- Church evangelism and schools programme
- Music ministry
- Various training and discipleship courses
- Joining our midweek Bible study leadership team

This new post is to start this autumn, initially on a four-year contract. Applicants may be lay or ordained. They must be conservative evangelical in theological conviction, theologically educated, with several years of full time church ministry experience. Remuneration will include salary, housing and pension contributions.

Applications close:

12 noon Wednesday 5th October; interviews: Saturday 22nd October.

For more information...

contact office@allsoutheastbourne.com or phone 01323 727033